

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS: KINDNESS

Use these questions to prompt discussion with your family or friends. Or simply work through these questions on your own and spend intimate time with the Lord in prayer and devotion!

How would you define kindness?

What sort of behavior do you have in mind when you say someone is kind?

What other qualities do you think are closely related to kindness?

Who do you find that you are most kind to? VS. Who are you least kind to? // Why?

What type of situation makes it easy to show kindness? VS. What type of situation makes it difficult to show kindness? // Why?

Is "kind" just a word that describes actions or can it be used to describe the character of a person? Is there a difference between someone who does a kind act and someone who has a kind character?

How can we move from occasionally acting kind to being described as a generally kind person?

What are some ways God showed kindness to His people throughout Scripture?

What are some ways God is still showing kindness to His people today?

What do you think is the purpose of God's kindness? (Rom. 2:4)

How does God's kindness lead us to repentance?

How can God's kindness motivate us to be kind to others?